

2009 NEW MEXICO STATE LEGISLATIVE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The Department of Political Science is taking applications for the 2008 New Mexico State Legislative Internship program. Participants in the program will be assigned to members of the New Mexico State Legislature for one week during the 2009 legislative session. Interns will be in a unique position to observe the operation of the legislature first-hand.

Interns receive a stipend of $300 to help cover their Santa Fe living expenses and one hour of academic credit.

Information and applications are available in the Political Science Department office (Social Sciences Building, Room # 2059) or on-line at: <http://polisci.unm.edu/nm.internship.htm>. The deadline to submit applications is November 17, 2008. If you have any questions about the program, please contact Professor Lonna Atkeson at atkeson@unm.edu.

Completed applications should be turned in to the Political Science Department, Room # 2059.
